BMJ CHRISTMAS EDITION

22.12.2006

We are already waiting for the BMJ. This year

- Physicians in opera: Stefan Willich about Le Nozze di Figaro
- Sword swallowing and its side effects: Brian Witcombe' s finding that sword swallows run a higher risk of injury
- Daisy the Doctor, Dr Dose, Dr Grizzly, Dr Amelia Bedelia, and colleagues: Monica Lalandi works on the image of doctors in children books: kind, professional, and reassuring
- Phenotypic differences between male physicians, surgeons, and film stars - comparative study: Antoni Trillas rating of "good looking" men - the winner, sorry, are not the surgeons
- From a 16th century monastery to a 21st century orthopaedic hospital: P (not Alberto) Tomba, worth a visit
- and much more

Yea, yea.
