Remember that your blog is only incidentally a publishing system or a public website. At its heart, your blog represents the evolving expression of your most passionately held ideas. It $\hat{a} \in \mathbb{T}$ s a conversation you $\hat{a} \in \mathbb{T}$ re holding up with the world and with yourself $\hat{a} \in \mathbb{T}$ a place where you can watch your own thoughts take different shapes and occasionally surprise you with where they end up $\hat{a} \in \mathbb{T}$

wow - couldn't say that in a better way.
