CAECUS SED LUCIDUS

15.11.2007

“Blind but enlightened”, a motto at the Nikolauspfege impressed me as a child when my parents visited the former director of this academy in Stuttgart.

There are so many examples where the norm isn't the norm - think also of Paul Wittgenstein, the one-handed pianist, who lost his right arm but approached many composers to write him sheet music: Benjamin Britten, Paul Hindemith, Richard Strauss, Maurice Ravel, Sergej Prokofjew among others.
