IF PIGS COULD FLY

is a book that I am currently reading. There is also a brief German/English account how this sentence came into life. What did you expect when reading the title??

Something like "winners don't punish"? A smart letter in this week's Nature with the 3 options of Cooperation(C) – Defection (D) and Punishment (P)?

"nice people"
player 1: C C C C
player 2: C C C top payoff!
"punish and perish"
player 1: C P P P P
player 2: C D D D D extremely bad!
"turning the other cheek"
player 1: C C C C
player 2: D D C C C payoff still positive!
```

we should have known this earlier...
