SCIENCE SPAM

19.04.2015

As a scientist you are spammed by lab vendors, congress chairmen and journal editors. Here is a selection of the spam that I received during the last 24 hours, all "journal" titles that I have never heard before.

Heart, Lung, Vessels (Pavia, Italy)

Dear Colleague,

"Heart, Lung and Vessels" is an open access journal with no publication fee. You can read it through this email or going directly to www.heartlungandvessels.org.

In Pubmed you can find all the manuscripts (intensive care, anesthesia, cardiothoracic and vascular surgery, cardiology and emergency medicine) published so far in HLV.

REDUCING PERIOPERATIVE MORTALITY. Please cast your vote now at www.democracymedicine.org.

We identified a short list of drugs/techniques/strategies that might reduce perioperative mortality and are willing to understand if physicians routinely use these interventions in their clinical practice and if they would include these interventions into future international guidelines.
