Tony Pelosi has spent 32 yrs revealing the spurious "findings" of a most cited scientist of 20th-C. Over the last 5 years some papers have been retracted, but more should follow. On 22nd July he'll talk on this; registration tinyurl.com/49x793yf in person or online /cont

Beguiled By Personality: Hans Eysenck and the long shadow of academic misconduct

Unforgotten the testimony of Eysenck's peer Grossarth-Maticek in Heidelberg

Science relies on controversy. Disagreement is part of research, solid consensus is overturned, celebrated researchers enter shady territory. Most of the time, this proceeds more or less smoothly, without all too much of an outcry. Most of the time...
